Kyphi—Sacred to Isis		Creating a time machine in a bottle
Sacred Journey		Recognizing the sacredness of being human

Kyphi—Sacred to Isis and Sacred Journey create archetypal scents that elicit lifetime memories and even generational or universal consciousness memories that need to be brought to present awareness. They incorporate the aromas of our most sacred rituals throughout the ages representing all cultures. Not dealing with specific wounds, they may be used with the individual blend in a personal ritual or ceremony, as each emotional wound is being addressed and cleared.
